

We find the existing Indiana No-Telemarketers Law exactly what the consumers want. They have free choice to block or not block. A new weaker Federal law would hurt us not help. Also, the suggested phrase "has previous business/dealings with" (or the like) is totally unacceptable because it is much too vague. We don't want this!!